

De Noordwijkse Golfclub

Expatriate membership

www.noordwijksegolfclub.nl

The Noordwijkse Golfclub is one of the most beautiful golf clubs in the Netherlands. The challenging course in the dunes at Noordwijkerhout is internationally renowned and has hosted the Dutch Open nine times, with famous winners such as Severiano Ballesteros, Payne Stewart, Colin Montgomerie and Bernhard Langer.

The Noordwijkse Golfclub now offers an expatriate membership to foreign employees and their spouses who temporarily live in the Netherlands and work at a Dutch branch of a multinational company or organization. An expatriate membership is a special form of company membership and is offered by the sponsorship committee, which is actively involved in engaging expatriate members.

If you are of foreign nationality, live in the Netherlands and work for a multinational company, you and your spouse can apply for an expatriate membership. It comprises:

- Membership of the Noordwijkse Golfclub for a maximum period of three years;
- An annual expatriate membership fee of Euro 4.000,-- per person (excluding your NGF contribution);
- No entrance fee required;
- Same rights and duties as ordinary members, with the exception of voting rights at the biannual general meetings.

If you are interested in exploring expatriate membership opportunities please get in touch with one of the members of the sponsorship committee, which you can do at any time of the year. We will be glad to introduce you to the Noordwijkse Golfclub and explain all features, benefits and conditions of an expatriate membership.

Once your expatriate membership has expired after three years you may apply for an ordinary membership by following the standard procedure.

We look forward to meeting you.
